CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

v.

CASE NUMBER: 10Lomy 10

JUSTIN GRANTHAM

I, the undersigned complainant being duly sworn state the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. On or about January 13, 2006 in Monongalia county, in the Northern District of WV defendant, JUSTIN GRANTHAM, through the use of a telephone, in and affecting interstate commerce, willfully made a threat and maliciously conveyed false information knowing the same to be false, concerning an attempt to be made, to kill, injure, and intimidate individuals and to unlawfully damage and destroy West Virginia University Hospital by means of an explosive, that is a bomb, in violation of Title 18 United States code, Section(s) 844(e). I further state that I am a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and that this complaint is based on the following facts:

On January 13, 2006, in the early morning hours, a series of calls were placed from a cell phone by the defendant Justin Grantham to divisions of West Virginia University Hospital with bomb threats, that is that there were bombs in the hospital and that they couldn't be found. Thereafter and particularly at approximately 3:47 a.m. on January 13, 2006, the defendant called MECCA, the communications center for Monongalia County, and told the operator that there were bombs on every floor of the hospital and demanded $1,000,000.00.

Continued on the attached sheet and made a part hereof.
